

MAGELLAN'S GOLD IS AN ADVENTURE BOOK WRITTEN AND
ILLUSTRATED BY ED LONG

IT'S A 26 EPISODE "CLIFF-HANGER" ADVENTURE WITHOUT
BAD LANGUAGE OR R RATED JUNK.

IF YOU ENJOY ACTION AND EXCITEMENT, YOU WILL LOVE
THIS NOVEL.

A SEQUEL, "MONARCH OF THE ANDES," IS ALREADY IN THE WORKS (BY REQUEST!)

Hammer was in Brett Stacy's office when he received the telegram from 'Arthur Fonsworth.' "Urgent! Meet me at Cabaña Hotel in Buenos Aires. Fantastic adventure awaits and discovery of greatest importance. Bring TDF maps." He told Brett that 'Arthur Fonsworth' was an alias used by the world famous finder of valuable ancient artifacts, Alex Rensbrooke. Brett agreed to send Hammer to meet him but, little did either men know what perils and excitement lay ahead.

The quest for Magellan's long-lost treasure begins in Spain during the 1937 Spanish Civil War with stops in Connecticut, Brazil, Argentina, Tierra del Fuego and ends in...well,... read and find out!

Embossed hard cover with color jacket, illustrated, 350 pages.